Rich v. Hersl, et al.	D. Md. 20-cv-00488	Joshua Leland Insley, Esq. Hannah M. Ernstberger, Esq. Saller, Lord, Ernstberger & Insley	2/24/2020	Plaintiff claims that a firearm was planted on him and he was unlawfully arrested on October 2, 2007. He claims that he was arrested in part because he filed an Internal Affairs complaint against one of the officers approximately one week before he was arrested. Plaintiff also alleges that the head of IAD did not properly investigate his complaint or discipline the officers involved in Plaintiff's arrest. Plaintiff alleges claims for Federal and State Constitutional violations.	7/20/2023	Summary judgment for defense	$0
Avon Allen v. Marcus Taylor, et al.	D. Md. 20-cv-00489	Joshua Leland Insley Hannah M. Ernstberger Saller, Lord, Ernstberger & Insley	2/24/2020	On January 13, 2016, Plaintiff was speaking with three friends in the 2200 block of Fulton Avenue when he was arrested by members of the GTTF for an alleged handgun violation. According to Plaintiff, the defendant officers would argue that they were wearing tactical vests. They pulled to a stop claiming that Plaintiff appeared to be armed. Plaintiff ran, slipped, fell, and an officer saw a gun. Plaintiff got up, picked up the weapon, and ran again. Taylor tackled Plaintiff but he [Plaintiff] tossed the gun into the sewer. Plaintiff claims he was beaten for resisting arrest. Plaintiff's first trial allegedly resulted in a mistrial. He was subsequently re-indicted, but the charges were dismissed before trial. Plaintiff alleges claims for violations of the Federal and State constitutions.	10/28/2020	Settlement	$70,000
Bernard Gough v. Jemell Rayam, et al.	D. Md. 20-cv-00542	Howard A. Milliman Mandy L. Milliman D'Alesandro & Milliman, P.A.	2/28/2020	Plaintiff alleges that on or about October 9, 2007, he was driving a car when he was shot in the head/neck area by a police officer without cause. Plaintiff alleges that the officer did not render aid despite the seriousness of the injuries. Further, he claims that officers falsified criminal charges against him, to which he pled guilty and was incarcerated until his conviction was vacated on motion of the State's Attorney's Office on or about November 27, 2019.	11/18/2020	Settlement	$1,000,000
Shawn Whiting v. Marcus Taylor, et al.	D. Md. 20-cv-00540	Joshua Leland Insley Hannah M. Ernstberger Saller, Lord, Ernstberger & Insley	2/28/2020	Plaintiff alleges that he was unlawfully arrested on January 24, 2014, following the execution of a search warrant at Plaintiff's home. Plaintiff claims that the warrant was based upon false statements. Plaintiff alleges that money and other property was stolen during that search. Plaintiff's complaint alleges violations of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution, Article 24 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights, and civil conspiracy.	11/4/2020	Settlement	$300,000
Sherman Thomas v. Jemell Rayam, et al.	D. Md. 20-cv-00541	Joshua Leland Insley Hannah M. Ernstberger Saller, Lord, Ernstberger & Insley	2/28/2020	This lawsuit arises from Plaintiff's arrest following the June 18, 2015 execution of three search warrants, one of which was for Plaintiff's home. Plaintiff was charged with possession of ammunition as a prohibited person, along with other charges relating to the drugs and guns recovered during the execution of the warrants. Plaintiff claims the affidavits in support of the warrants were based on false information from a confidential informant. Plaintiff pled guilty to two counts of the indictment against him, and received a five year sentence. Following the indictments of several former GTTF officers, many of whom assisted in obtaining the warrants and arresting Plaintiff, Plaintiff's sentence was vacated. Plaintiff's complaint alleges violations of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution, Article 24 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights, and civil conspiracy.	11/4/2020	Settlement	$165,000
Jamal Walker, et al. v. Wayne Jenkins, et al.	D. Md. 20-cv-00572	Ivan Bates Bates & Garcia, LLC	3/2/2020	Plaintiffs allege that, on November 3, 2010, Defendants performed an illegal search of Jamal Walker's car during which Defendants alluded to planting drugs and stole money from the vehicle before unlawfully arresting Jamal Walker. Defendants then proceeded to Jamal Walker's residence where they performed an illegal search, planted evidence, and unlawfully arrested Jovonne Walker. Plaintiffs allege violations of the federal and state constitutions.	10/28/2020	Settlement	$15,000
